The image displays a page of a musical score for the song "The Rose Tree". The score is arranged in a system with four staves: V-c (Vocal), C-b (Cello), T-ro (Tenor), and Org. (Organ). The music is written in a key with one flat (B-flat) and a common time signature. The first system contains measures 60 and 61. The second system also contains measures 60 and 61, with a repeat sign at the beginning of measure 60 and a first ending bracket over measure 61. The organ part features a prominent melody in the right hand and a supporting bass line in the left hand. The vocal parts are written in a simple, melodic style. The overall tempo and mood are indicated by the notation and the key signature.

This musical score is for the piece "The Rose Tree" from the opera "The Mikado". It is arranged for Organ, Violoncello (V-c.), and Trombone (T-ro). The score is divided into three systems. The first system features the Organ playing a complex, flowing melody in the right hand and a supporting bass line in the left hand. The Violoncello and Trombone parts are shown as empty staves, indicating they are optional or to be played by the Organist. The second system shows the Violoncello and Trombone parts entering, playing a rhythmic accompaniment. The Organ part continues with a similar melody. The third system shows the Violoncello and Trombone parts playing a more active role, with the Organ providing a harmonic and melodic backdrop. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings like f (forte) and mf (mezzo-forte).

This system contains measures 1 through 4 of the piece. The V-c. (Violoncello) section is represented by four staves, each with a complex rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes. The C-b. (Contrabasso) part is on a single staff, mostly silent with a few notes in measure 4. The T-ro (Trombo) part is on a single staff, playing a rhythmic pattern of eighth notes. The Org. (Organo) part consists of two staves, with the upper staff playing a melodic line and the lower staff providing a bass line.

Org.

This system contains measures 1 through 3 of the piece. It features five staves: three for the Violoncello (V-c.) in the upper register, one for the Contrabasso (C-b.) in the lower register, and one for the Tromba (T-ro) with a continuous sixteenth-note pattern. The Organ (Org.) is represented by a grand staff with treble and bass clefs. The key signature has one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 4/4. Measure 1 shows the V-c. parts with eighth-note figures and the C-b. with a descending eighth-note line. Measure 2 continues these patterns with some chromatic movement. Measure 3 concludes the system with sustained notes in the V-c. parts and a final eighth-note figure in the C-b.

C-b.

T-ro

Org.

This system contains measures 4 through 6. The instrumentation remains the same. In measure 4, the V-c. parts have a more active eighth-note pattern, while the C-b. continues its descending line. The Tromba (T-ro) maintains its steady sixteenth-note accompaniment. The Organ (Org.) features a melodic line in the treble and a supporting bass line. Measure 5 shows further development of these themes. Measure 6 ends the system with a final chordal structure in the V-c. and C-b. parts, and a concluding organ figure.

This musical score is divided into three systems, each featuring four staves: three for woodwinds (V-c., C-b., Timp.) and one for the Organ (Org.).

- System 1: The woodwinds play a rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes. The Organ provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines in both hands.
- System 2: The woodwinds continue their rhythmic pattern, with some notes marked with accents. The Organ accompaniment remains consistent.
- System 3: The woodwinds play a more complex rhythmic pattern, including some beamed sixteenth notes. The Organ accompaniment continues to support the woodwinds.

The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, beams, and dynamic markings. The woodwind parts are written in bass clef, while the Organ part is written in grand staff (treble and bass clefs).
